

ANNO DOMINI

1991-92

President's Message

The academic year 1991/92 is over. As I reflect on the past year the first thing that comes to mind is the failure of the Brookview Trust. This failure impacted on most, if not all of us at the College. It has created uncertainties and distrust which did not disappear overnight. Even after the Board of Governors made some changes it was difficult to restore the atmosphere on campus to its former state of optimism and enthusiasm. This episode has grieved us all, and we can hardly wait to get a fresh start in the 92/93 year.

However, many good things happened. You, the students, again received the best education. Many fun things happened as well. The various moods of a residential campus are all portrayed in the yearbook, and again you have done a wonderful job. My congratulations are extended to all who helped make this edition of Anno Domini such a worthwhile project.

As you begin to turn the pages may you be reminded of an exciting opportunity you were given; an opportunity to live and study at a Christian institution where the Lord is honoured.

May God surround us all with His grace and blessing so that we may continue to step forward in faith. Learning is for serving!

Your President,

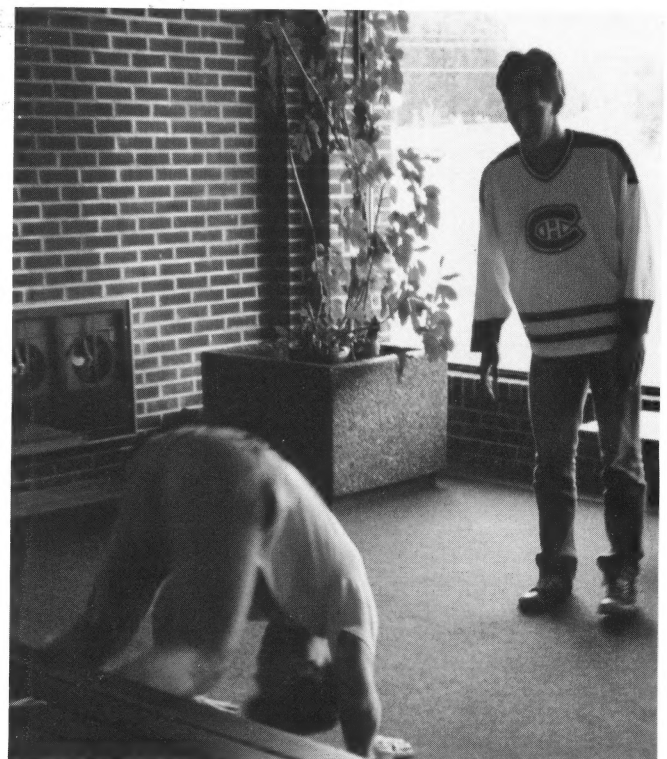

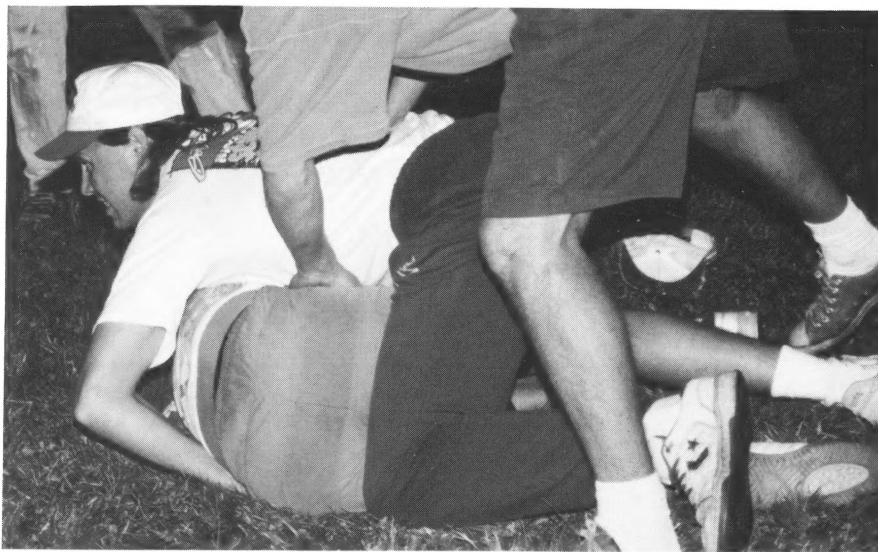

Henry R. De Bolster

"Faces"

1991

Matthew 17:20b

1992

A few words...

Well, here it is - our best shot at a yearbook. Taking into consideration the fact that neither one of us has worked on a yearbook before, we look at our work with some pride. Of course, it goes without saying, that there are numerous mistakes throughout the book, but we hope that you can look on these errors with some sympathy and perhaps laugh at a few of the blunders.

We want to thank all those who helped us with this yearbook; those that gave us pictures or offered advice, those who lent a helping hand or rendered encouragement, and even to those who had to put up with the many complaints we willingly verbalized. Your support meant a lot to us.

We took a different perspective for this yearbook. We want it to be your memories and your thoughts as you scan the pages - so we left out the commentaries and smart remarks that could have been made (and there were plenty!!). Use your imagination and your personal recollections to create the stories that surround these pictures.

Looking back on the year's events, it can be seen that the theme "Faith to Move Mountains" was something often tested, but as always, God's promises to us were faithful and just. From the highs to the lows, God was always present. In classes, dorm life, athletics and theatre - God was always in control and he has never failed us yet.

The school-year of 1991-1992 was a good one for us, because it was our year of graduation (YAY!!) We urge the rest of you to enjoy your years at Redeemer and take advantage of all the activities and opportunities that are available. Remember to always walk by faith in the way of the Lord because the future is in His hands. May God bless you as you faithfully continue doing the work He has set before you.
